

Nathan I. Allen

Education

Master of Science in Information Technology (2007)

Management Information Systems concentration
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, NY

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science, Summa Cum Laude (2005)

Nyack College, Nyack, NY

Experience

Professional Development Program, University at Albany, Albany, NY

Senior Programmer/Analyst, May 2014 – Present

Member of the Instructional Technologies Unit, responsible for maintaining and upgrading learning management systems and online courses, providing technical support, and maintaining web-related computer systems.

The State University of New York System Administration, Albany, NY

Web Design & Technical Lead (Senior Programmer/Analyst), October 2007 – April 2014

Part of the Web Shared Services group; served as the primary designer, analyzed projects to construct solutions, researched new technologies, supported other programmers, managed web Content Management System, trained users, troubleshooted, and programmed web applications. Promoted in July 2011.

Compelled Christian Church, Troy, NY

Elder, Worship & Web Director, October 2007 – June 2014 (volunteer)

Coordinated resources for worship teams, oversaw audio/visual production and equipment, led worship team, developed and maintained church website, developed leaders, sat on church board.

The Salvation Army, West Nyack, NY

Temporary Website Assistant, August - December 2006

Designed and built websites and applications for various departments, prepared content for online publication, provided technical support.

Valley Bible Church, Bellvale, NY

Web and Graphics Designer, July – October 2007 (volunteer)

Lead for graphical design portions of church re-branding effort, including logo design, complete website redesign, and printed material design.

Web designer, May – August 2005 (volunteer)

Coordinated website redesign effort, programmed, provided support to webmaster.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, NY

Web Design Consultant, December 2006 – April 2007

Redesigned Career Development Center's Sophomore Career Experience program website.